

It seems indisputably clear that the public is very much against changes in law that permit any further media consolidation. I would now like to remind any of you at the FCC that have future political ambitions, and specifically Mr. Powell, that the public will not neither forgive nor forget your actions on June 2nd. Please vote accordingly.